

#AHOMEFORTHEARTS

A HOME FOR THE ARTS

THAT

ALL

IS

—

ROCK THE SUB

THERE

?

IS

THERAPY

RECREATION

SCHOOL

PERFORMING HOME

ROCK THE SUB

AS PART OF A HOME FOR THE ARTS

the Substation
A Home for the Arts

ROCK THE SUB

FEATURING:

FAUX PAS
HANGING UP THE MOON
KOJI

DATE:

Sunday,
20 November
2016

TIMING:

7:30pm –
11:30pm

IN CONJUNCTION WITH:

timbré
@ The Substation

Free Admission

The Substation and Timbre are proud to bring you Rock The Sub — a night of emerging and established musicians! Featuring youngsters Faux Pas, who'll make you groove along to their beat; a familiar name to The Substation, ex-frontman of Concave Scream, Sean Lam, brings the simple honesty of folk music to the stage as Hanging Up The Moon. Finally Alt-rockers Koji, bringing on heavy riffed, head-banging rock music.

20 NOVEMBER, SUNDAY 7.30PM - 10PM

Timbre@Substation
Free Admission

For this special edition of Rock The Sub, Timbre and The Substation are proud to bring together both emerging and established musicians. The night will feature three bands: Faux Pas, an NAC NOISE 2015 mentee; KOJI, a band that was recently featured in Timbre's Singapore Original series, and has been on the scene for a few years; and lastly, Hanging Up The Moon, whose frontman, Sean Lam, used to also front Concave Scream, one of the pioneering indie bands in Singapore who used to play regularly at The Substation Garden. We promise you a night of riotous noise!

#AHOMEFORTHEARTS